Chamber Statement

Following the recent Seaside City Council meeting, the Chamber of Commerce announced that the Council refused to accept the proposal of the Chamber to sponsor the annual 4th of July Parade.

The reason for the Council's refusal is the the Chambers would not agree to a motion that would allow some recourse to applicants who were denied a permit to march in the parade.

However, the Chamber had some second thoughts about their position and have agreed to set up an "independent civic committee" that will review the decisions of the Chamber parade committee.

The statement of the Chamber concerning their change of opinion follows.

For more than 20 years, the Seaside Chamber of Commerce has provided the organization and direction for the Annual Seaside 4th of July Parade. In the early years of this parade, the Chamber of Commerce provided the financial backing for the parade as well as its direction. In recent years, following the incorporation of Seaside, the City of Seaside has provided a major portion of the financing necessary to a successful celebration.

As the Chamber of Commerce, we are vitally interested in the success of our community and its programs. Accordingly, we feel a responsibility to the entire community to insure the continuation of a community function which is acclaimed throughout the State of California as one of the best and most highly praised 4th of July parades.

Our many years experience in presenting this parade has made us acutely aware of many problems and pitfalls inherent to the staging of a production of the large proportions to which our parade has grown. Above all, however, has been our realization that to insure the success of such an undertaking, the cooperation of all groups, both public and private, is mandatory.

In an effort to unite the community and with a desire to again sponsor a 4th of July Parade in the best traditions of the City of Seaside, the Board of Directors of the Seaside Chamber of Commerce have met in am emergency meeting and the following recommendation has been unanimously approved.

"The Seaside Chamber of Commerce recommends that an independent civic committee be formed in connection with parade applications. The purpose of this committee would be to review the decisions of the Chamber of Commerce Parade Committee in any case where an application for a parade invitation has been denied by the parade committee and where the applicant feels that their participation in the parade deserves further consideration. This committee would have the responsibility to reverse or uphold the decision of the Chamber of Commerce Parade Committee in connection with any disputes concerning parade participants, and in accordance with parade rules.

The Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors would name two persons to this committee, one of whom would be a chamber director and the second would be a member of the Seaside clergy. The Seaside City Council would also name two persons, one of whom would be a member of the city council, and the second also to be a member of the local clergy. These four members thus named would meet and appoint a fifth member to the remaining spot on the committee."

Court Says Elections Are Separate

By Art Tagle

The Seaside City Council was vindicated in court last week of charges that they were deliberately attempting to hold two separate city elections as an extra burden to taxpayers.

The two elections-one a referendum as to whether the city council could legally take control of the city's Urban Renewal Agency and the other the recall election of the council-will have to be held on separate dates according to Judge J. F. Good in Monterey Superior Court.

Good, in handing down this decision, told City Attorney Donald H. Smith and Philip A. Oberg, attorney for the Citizens for Good Government that, "It is not the function of a court to offer legal advice to a city council. I can mandate them to perform in accordance with the law. I can mandate them to rephrase the proposition in the original resolution."

The correct wording of the proposition was decided in closed session between Good, Smith and Oberg. As a result of this session, the city agreed to change the wording of the original measure from the negative to the affirmative.

As the urban renewal referendum now stands, voters will vote "yes" if they agree with the council's move and "no" if the wish to rescind the move.

Councilman Jerry McGrath, after this decision had been reached, stated, "The atmosphere of the court did ascertain our movement. The council was bound by the law. It is unfortunate that the people who submitted the petitions did not have the dates coincide. It was their submission that dictated the time of elections."

The dates of the elections remain the same, June 1 for the referendum and June 29 for the recall.

VFW Names Marinan

Herbert R. Rainwater, San Bernardino, California, has announced the appointment of Richard D. Allen, 3028 Independence Street, Marina, as National Aide-de-Camp, Recruiting Class, Veterans of Foreign Wars, for recruiting a minimum of 75 new members in his Post.

In announcing the appointment, Chief Rainwater said, "The V.F.W. is fortunate to have a vast number of dedicated V.F.W. members who each year make it their personal business to recruit new members. These dedicated members are the backbone of our organization, seeking as their only reward a stronger V.F.W. through which to better serve the cause of all veterans and to strengthen our community service programs. I am deeply indebted to Mr. Allen and congratulate him on this appointment."

Talcott Named As Delegate

Congressman Burt L. Talcott has accepted an invitation from President Nixon to be a delegate to the 1971 White House Conference on Youth.

The Conference will be held at Estes Park, Colorado, from April 18-22.

The White House Conference will bring together young people and adult leaders from a number of national institutions to consider areas of concern to the youth of the country and to develop recommendations for instituting action over the next decade. Talcott is one of 10 members of the U. S. Congress selected to participate in the Conference.

Following up the President's invitation to Talcott, National Conference Chairman Stephen Hess said:

"You are being asked to help formulate recommendations at the Conference in the area of economy and employment. As a member of the House Subcommittee on Housing and Urban Development, Committee on Appropriations, we believe that you can make a unique contribution to the Conference in this field."

Hess saide Talcott's identification with youth and their problems was another reason for his selection as a Conference delegate.

MPUSD Adopts Two Year Calendar

In unprecedented action, the Monterey Peninsula Unified School District Board of Education last night adopted school calendars for two years, 1971-72 and 1972-73. Superintendent Allan J. Petersdorf said his recommendation is for convenience of the public -- and of the staff -- as well as a necessity to adopt the 1971-72 calendar now for administrative planning for opening school in the fall. He said that teachers in particular could benefit from knowing far in advance opening and closing dates of school so they could make arrangements for summer graduate wotk or chartered travel flights.

First day of school for 1971-72 is Tuesday, September 7, continuing for 178 school days through Thursday, June 15, 1972.

Holidays are Labor Day (September 6); California Admission Day (September 9); Monday, October 25; Veterans' Day; Thursday and Friday, November 25 and 26, Thanksgiving Day; Christmas recess beginning Saturday, December 18 through Sunday, January 2, 1972; Lincoln's birthday observance Friday, February 11, Washington's birthday observance Monday, February 21; Easter recess from Saturday, March 25 through Easter Sunday April 2 and Memorial Day observance Monday, May 29.

Also in 1971-72, there will be four days when teachers will be on duty but school will not be in session. These are Friday, September 3, before opening of school; Friday, November 5, inservice day; January 28 mid-semester teacher work day and Friday, March 3, another inservice day. Inservice days are opportunities for teachers to share information about new materials, to hear outstanding speakers, have workshops.

The 1972-73 school year is similar, although dates are different-178 school days from Tuesday, September 5, 1972 through Friday, June 13, 1973.

Seaside Ripples

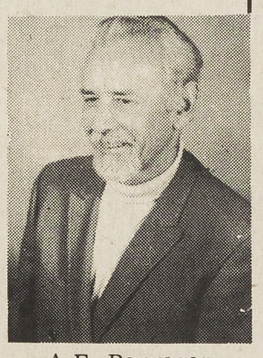
A. E. 'Andy' Barragan, Publisher



A.E. Barragan

I have used the following quote from Kahlil Gibran, author of the "Prophet," in previous columns, but is seemed to fit the occassion so well this week that I am taking the liberty of using it again. The wisdom in Gibran's writing is so ageless and inspiring that it would do many of us good to absorb some of his teachings.

"The wise man is he who loves and reveres God. A man's merit lies in his knowledge and in his deeds, not in his color, faith, race, or descent. For remember, my friend, the son of a shepherd who possesses knowledge is of greater worth to a nation than the heir to a throne, if he be ignorant. Knowledge is your true patent of nobility, no matter who your father or what your race may be.

"Learning is the only wealth tyrants cannot despoil. Only death can dim the lamp of knowledge that is within you. The true wealth of a nation lies not in its gold or silver but in its learning, wisdom and the uprightness of its sons." Gibran continues with this appropiate quote which fits our present political situation in Seaside.

"If your knowledge teaches you not to rise above human weakness and misery and lead your fellow man on the right path, you are indeed a man of little worth and will remain such till judgement day.

"Learn the words of wisdom uttered by the wise and apply them in your own life, live them-but do not make a show of reciting them, for he who repeats what he does not understand is no better than an ass that is loaded with books."

Grooving Around the Peninsula

with BETTY MANN

Hi There, Fellow Peninsulans:

Happenings this week included the appointment of Dr. Ruth Love Holloway as the nation's "Chief of the Right to Read "program in Washington, D. C. Dr. Holloway, a very charming and delightful person, joins the list of famous black educators who have fought to make a better way of life for minority children. A recent visitor of the Peninsula she was a guest speaker at a luncheon at the La Playa Hotel that was hosted by her friend and protege, Mrs. Charlie Knight. She was also the honored guest and speaker at the Monterey Peninsula Cotillion League's Debutante Ball on the same date. Yours truly has had the pleasure of meeting her and her distinguished husband, Dr. James Holloway, at a previous affair and I have acquired the esteemed pleasure of sharing a personal friendship with Ruth Holloway of whom I'm very fond and proud of. Following is the San Francisco Chronicle's account of Dr. Holloway's appointment:

Ruth Holloway

Dr. Ruth Love Holloway, 38, one of California's leading black educators, was named national director of the Right to Read Program by U.S. Education Commissioner Sidney P. Marland Jr. yesterday.

Dr. Holloway, who has been chief of the Bureau of Compensatory Education's program development in the California State Department of Education since 1965, will assume her new $31,500 a year job on July 1.

Her task will be to insure that 99 per cent of the 16-year-olds and 90 percent of those over 16 in the United States are functionally literate by the start of the next decade. Ten percent of the Nation's population is now considered to be functionally illiterate.

The Right to Read Program was conceived several years ago by former commissioner James E. Allen, Jr.

Mrs. Holloway's husband, Dr. James A. Holloway, now a neurophysiologist at the University of California's Davis Campus, will also leave soon for Washington to take a post with Johns Hopkins University.

Mrs. Holloway is the granddaughter of a runaway slave who eventually founded the first school for Negroes in Lawton, Okla. A native of Bakersfield, she joined the State Department of Education in 1963.

COMING EVENTS

Come one, come all, to the Monterey Cotillion League's African Ball. It will be held May 1 at the Outrigger on Cannery Row. Authentic and original African food will be served. African African entertainment and African fashion show and a guest African combo will entertain. Music for dancing will be furnished by the distinguished Jade Quartet. Attire for the evening will be dashikis, kangas, kilembas, and all African wear. Everyone is welcome-- Black people, White people, Yellow people, Red people and Green ones too. (Smiles).

The following week, May 8, the NAACP will sponsor their Coronation Ball at the Del Monte Hyatt House in Monterey. See y'all there.

Until next week,

BETTY

Baha Burger, located at 2008 Fremont Boulevard in Seaside and 7th and Monterey in Gilroy, has been named winner of the Class I division of the First Annual Open Hamburger Classic.

The contest, which was sponsored by a San Jose newspaper, had over a hundred entries. An independent panel of judges sampled hamburgers in search of the "best burgers to be found in this valley."

Their choice, in each of three categories separated by prices, was based on meat quality and flavor balance with additional consideration given to size, appearance and presentation.

Baha Burger which won the Class I -- under $50¢-- category, are drive-ins managed by Alfonso Tamayo. Their winning burger, priced at 35¢ and weighing two ounces after cooking, is a beef patty served on an [illegible] sized bun with fresh lettuce and a massive tomato slice.

Kirk's Drive Inn, 2388 S. Bascom, San Jose, was the Class II --50¢ to $1 -- winner, while the Class III--over $1--winner was Original Joe's 301 S. First St., San Jose.

License Fees Distributed

State Controller Houston I. Flournoy has announced the semi-annual apportionment among counties, cities and school districts of $3,524,505 in trailer coach license fees collected during the last six months of 1970. Monterey County's share was $39,455.71.

The largest apportionment was $499,717 to Los Angeles County. The smallest was $299 to Alpine County.

The Vehicle License Fee law provides that the license fees paid on all trailer coaches registered in California be apportioned semi-annually to the counties on the basis of the registered addresses of the vehicles. Apportionments are made as soon as possible after the registration data is made available to the controller by the Department of Motor Vehicles.

Each County Auditor then distributes the total county apportionment equally among the county, the city (if the address is within a city) and the school districts in which each trailer is situated.

BAND-TAIL PIGEONS

During 1969, some 215,900 band-tail pigeons were bagged in California.

REDUCING ACCIDENTS

Reducing our skyrocketing number of traffic accidents is a worthy cause. Join the cause, advises the National Automobile Club, by driving safely.

RESURFACING

More than 1,000 miles of state highways in California will be resurfaced during 1971 Estimated cost for all this resurfacing will be approximately $10,000,000.

Seaside Ripples

These wise words bring me to the point of this column. There are two very important elections being held next Tuesday, April 20 and it behooves all of us to get out and vote. One is the election of two members to the Board of the Monterey Peninsula Unified School District from Seaside and one from the Marina trustee district. The other election is for three trustees to the Monterey Peninsula College board.

A few weeks ago I lamented in my column that there were no candidates from the Seaside and Marina area who were worthy of consideration to serve on the board of the MPUSD. Great steps are being taken these days in the field of education. Changes and revisions in time-worn concepts of how best to educate our children are being considered every day throughout the country. At times we have gone back to old methods after trying new ones that didn't succeed, but we must continue to try many more new methods until we can arrive at procedures whereby our children are taught properly, so that they can not only read and write but can cope with life in our complex civilization.

Directing the policy for such an important task cannot be left to those who would take us back to the dark ages. People must be elected who can see ahead and not those who would have us go backward. We, in Seaside, have two such people running in the persons of Linda Bassett and the Reverend H. H. Lusk. We are blessed with two candidates, where near the filing time we had none. Both Mrs. Bassett and the Rev. Lusk have been most active in the community and deserve the support of those people in the community who would keep our school board moving forward. Both are well known in the community and have the interest of the large minority population in Seaside uppermost in their programs.

For the Marina Trustee seat, we endorse the candidacy of Robert Gonzales. Gonzales has the time, energy, dedication and qualifications for the position. We believe that Gonzales can make a real contribution to the community and the Board. Gonzales is the president of the Los Arboles PTA in Marina and decided to run when Ray Isakson pulled out of the race this year.

For the three positions on the Monterey Peninsula College board, we endorse the candidacy of the three present incumbents: Russ Hansen, Lilyan Eldred and Lewis Fenton. The college has made tremendous strides recently, particularly in the last year. Further expansion is going to take place in the next year or two and those in leadership who have done such an outstanding job so far should be retained to carry out the work. We have been very groud of our college. We should thank the present board members by electing them to another term.

Before we close this column we want to congratulate the Seaside Chamber of Commerce for their new proposal on the conduct of the 4th of July Parade. The Chamber reconsidered their former hard position on the selection of those who would like to participate in the parade and are turned down. The Chamber now has proposed to the council that a committee of five persons be set up to review any decisions of the parade committee in regard to who is eligible for entry into the parade. Two members of the committee are to be selected by the Chamber and two members to be appointed by the city council. These four members of the committee will then chose the fifth member. We think that this is a mature proposal and should be given serious consideration by the city council. It will give an impartial committee the final decision as to who will participate in the parade. It will save, in advance, any furor such as was created in the last 4th of July parade. It is a compromise that I am sure all sides of the controversy can live with. I hope that the City Council gives it top priority and accepts the Chambers' proposal.

Who Cares

By Mel Vercoe

News item: Washington, D.C., Dec., 10, 2003 A.D. ... F.B.I. Director J. Edgar Hoover today announced again that he has no intention of retiring. During a press interview on his 109th birthday, Mr. Hoover emphatically denied that he got lost in the Pentagon restroom last week while looking for his hearing aid. "Furthermore," said Mr. Hoover, "it is ridiculous to assume that I am too old for the job. Why, I don't feel a day over a hundred."

News item: San Clemente, Calif., Dec. 11, 2003 A.D. ... President Nixon held his 500th press conference today on the lawn of the new White House overlooking the Pacific. Asked about his hopes for reelection again in 2004 A.D., Mr. Nixon said the American people really have no choice. "Now that Vietnamization has almost succeeded, I feel I owe it to our prisoners of war to continue this valiant fight to free them by achieving a military victory in Vietnam. Not only that," said Mr. Nixon, who will be 91 this year, "we have pressing problems right here in America that must be attended to, and we must get this Vietnam nuisance settled so that we can get to them."

Mr. Nixon spoke lightly of his opposition next year. "Hubert Humphrey is 92, you know, and he is the only one left, and besides, he is going to play golf with Mr. Agnew this afternoon. Maybe we won't have to have an election."

News item: Washington, D.C., Dec. 12, 2003 A.D. ... A militant band of Quaker church officials today petitioned Congress to furnish better benches at the new White House front gate at San Clemente. "This is our 35th year of sitting on White House benches trying to get in to see the President. We have worn our almost a thousand pairs of trousers and still haven't found out why Mr. Nixon calls himself a pacifist. We want a government grant to purchase cushions for the benches." Mr. john Smith, spokesman for the group, said, "we will drop our demand for the cushions if Mr. Nixon will promise to join some other church and quit telling people he is a peace-loving Quaker." Senator J. William Fulbright, reaced reached at the Shady-Rest Rest Home in Florida where he maintains a joint office with Senator Barry Goldwater said, "I really don't see how Congress can be expected to go into debth to buy cushions for these radicals. Besides, Congress is only supposed to declare war. What was the question again?"

Questions are Answered

March 12, 1971

Q -- I am a Vietnam veteran discharged May 2, 1967, attending school under the GI Bill. Does this bar me from the home loan benefit?

A -- No. Home loan benefit eligibility is not affected by the education benefit in any manner whatsoever.

Candidates' Statements

RUSSEL HANSEN

It is with great pride that I have filed for re-election to the Monterey Peninsula Community College Board of Trustees. I have served almost eight years on the board, all of which have been very challenging.

With most of my adult life having worked in technical and vocational training I feel this experience is most valuable in today's education.

It is of great concern to all the college trustees that more vocational and technical classes have not been offered. If monies are available such programs can be offered at the college and I feel my experience in the building trades can be of value.

If elected I shall continue giving all possible time to the student, the resident of the community, and the college.

LEWIS FENTON

Monterey Peninsula College should be responsibe to the needs of this District. The Trustees of Monterey Peninsula College should be primarily concerned with this community and its needs.

Trustees of the College should be conscientious in preserving at the College an atmosphere of academic freedom. They should be equally conscientious in assuring that no group of students or other persons, however large or small, by conduct that violates general law or college rules, interferes with any education or community program at the College, whether the interference is claimed to be in the name of, or for the object of some lauditory objective.

I believe that the Board of Trustees of the College must reflect the community's wishes concerning priorities in program and utilization of facilities at the College. Limitations on tax and other revenues require thoughtful decisions to assure that the programs that are carried forward truly meet the needs and desires of the community and do not utilize resources disproportionate to the benefit obtained.

LILYAN ELDRED

I am seeking re-election for the Monterey Peninsula College Board of Trustees because I believe I can use my two and one-half years of experience and knowledge gained on our Board to more effectively serve the Community. Iam proud of the accomplishments made under the present Board's direction.

I am a licensed Medical Technologist by profession. I worked at my profession for several years but recently I have devoted myself to working in the community. I have served on the Pacific Grove Planning Commission and am presently President of the Pacific Grove Library Board. I have been most active in the League of Women Voters-- I ama past-President of the Monterey Peninsula League and served as a state officer for the League of Women Voters of California. My main fields of interest have been in studies on welfare, child care, unemployment, foreign policy and education.

I would like to make these comments about M.P.C.:

* It has an overall high quality program with a minimum tax rate.

* The area of vocational education is one of constant change, the College must continually instigate new and improved programs. However, there are several points of special merit. We have cooperated with the four colleges in our region in course offerings so as not to duplicate some of the high cost programs, special arrangements for transportation are available. M.P.C. also cooperates with the Peninsula High Schools in providing access for advanced courses or to take advantage of the vocational education and college courses while still in high school. The programs under the Manpower Development and Training Act have met immediate needs at no direct cost to the local taxpayer.

* The facilities receive full use during the day and evening division programs and through an extensive community service program that offers a wide variety of lectures, performing art events, films, and special forums.

* The Economic Opportunity Program for disadvantaged students is one of the ranking ones in the State and should continue to receive emphasis. I believe we have an outstanding Community College which is alert to opportunities to serve the Community in many ways, as it should. I seek re-election because I would like to continue my services in this important task.

Seasiders Enlist

Six men from the Seaside area volunteered for service with the United States Army during the month of March, according to Sergeant Jose Garcia, Army recruiter for the Monterey Peninsula.

The six men are: David Bell, Jr., 1248 Sonoma Street; Ronald J. Peaks, 1708 Waring Street; Ronnie D. Henderson, 795 Amador Street and Richard L. Harvey, 1783 Del Monte Avenue. From Fort Ord, Milton E. Johnson, Jr., of 411 Kerling Street and Calvin E. Malone of 180 Noumea Road enlisted.

All volunteers enlisted for training in a specific job, field or location. This was guaranteed to them before enlisting.

For further information on enlistment opportunities, persons are urged to contact Sgt. Garcia at 431 Webster Street in Monterey or call him at 372-4742.

Mime Star Coming to MPC

The art of pantomime will be both taught and performed in two events scheduled for Friday, April 16, by the Monterey Peninsula College community services office.

At 2 p.m. that day, in the MPC Theater, Francisco Reynders, director of mime and assisrant professor of theater arts at Lewis and Clark College, Oregon, aided by Elizabeth Page, will conduct a two-hour workshop in nonverbal communication. Morgan Stock and Ross Durfee and their MPC drama classes will participate. The public is cordially invited to attend free of charge.

At 8 p.m., Reynders and Miss Page will appear in a performance of classical mime, also in the college theater. Tickets for this event may be purchased at the MPC community office and will be available at the door.

Reynders, who studied in Paris at the Ecole de Mime of Etienne Decoux, performed throughout Europe before coming to the United States. For several seasons, he has toured the country under the auspices of the Association of American Colleges Arts Progam, appearing at more than 600 campuses.

Miss Page has studied mime with Reynders for three years, accompanying him on many of his college engagements.

ARMY COMMENDATION MEDAL

On April 2, Sergeant First Class James B. Hurley, presently assigned to the Medical Company, U.S. Army Medical Department Activity (MEDDAC) Fort Ord, California, received a certificate and the Army Commendation Medal for meritorious service from January 1968 to June 1970 while stationed in Augsberg, Germany.

Sergrant Hurley distinguished himself through meritorious service during the above period while serving consecutively as Senior Medical Specialist and Clearing Platoon Sergeant, Company D, 24th Medical Battalion and Clearing Platoon Sergeant, Company D, First Medical Battalion. He was primarily responsible for the successful completion of the prior positioning of all medical equipment of the 24th Medical battalion during EXERCISE REFORGER.

Sergeant First Class Hurley became the Clearing Platoon Sergeant of Company D, in June 1969 and through his superior leadership ability, transformed the platoon into the best in the company. The high morale of his men and their excellent performance of duty attest to Sergeant First Class Hurley's ability to motivate and inspire his subordinates. His desire for excellence, professional attitude and superior leadership ability has been an inspiration to all with whom he associated. Sergeant First Class James B. Hurley's many worthwhile contributions reflected great credit upon himself, the VII Corps and the United States Army.

Sergeant Hurley entered the service November 18, 1958 at Fort Knox, Kentucky, where he spent approximately nine months. From Fort Knox he was transferred to the 11th Army Calvary in Strausberg, Germany, where he served until October 1963. Then he was transferred to Kenner Army Hospital, Fort Lee, Virginia, where he served as NCOIC of the EENT Clinic. From May 1965 to May 1966 he attended the Clinical Technician School at Fort Belvoir, Virginia. Following his schooling, he served a tour of duty in Vietnam, with the First Battalion, 4th Infantry Division. From Vietnam Sergeant Hurley was sent to Augsberg.

Sergeant Hurley, presently serving as NCOIC of the Department of Hospital Clinics, Fort Ord, is married and has two children, Johann and Sylvia, all residing at Fort Ord.

OMICRON NU CONGRATULATES GROCE

On March 15, Brother Thomas Groce was recognized for outstanding service by receiving his new rank of Commander in the U.S. Navy. Commander Groce is currently attending the Navy Post Graduate School, seeking his second Masters Degree in Management. He has been a temporary resident of Monterey Peninsula for approximately one year and has been very active in community affairs. He hails from Woodstown, New Jersey and received his B.S. Degree from Delaware State College.

He went on to the University of Wisconsin for his first Master's Degree and has completed work toward a Doctorate. Various career assignments have carried him to many parts of the world - to mention a few exotic places - Kodiak, Alaska; the Philipine Islands; Japan; Cuba and the Mediterranean. His next assignment will take him to further schooling at the Military Sea Lift Command, Oakland, and hopefully to the European Command.

Commander Groce, the members of Omicron Nu join your family and friends in extending Congratulations and the best of luck on your road to Admiral.

YWCA Week Means New Classes

April brings international YWCA Week and, with it, many new clases offered under the YWCA of the Monterey Peninsula.

Throughout April 18-24, the international focus this year is on YOU. Come as YOU are and enter into the triad of YW services: Health, Personal Development and Civic Awareness in your community. Seven new classes are available.

Under health activities, Slimnastics, one of YWCA classes on this peninsula, continues. For self-improvement and educational advancement, there are Spanish and English Conversation for our newer Americans.

For the housewife - and any interested citizen - there are new classes in "Ecology Begins at Home" and Cake Decorating.

Recreational activities include Bridge, Ballroom Dancing (for adults) and Modern Dance and Ballet (for school girls).

A second year of volunteer jobs is also being planned for high school and college students wishing to serve this summer.

To climax April's activities, the first annual meeting of the new local association will be held at St. John's Church, Monterey, on April 30. Mrs. Everett Bibb, president of the branch, will preside at this dinner meeting, at which the YWCA representative and speaker will be Miss Leontine Butler of the San Francisco area office.

Those interested in the dinner or in having a full schedule of new classes may phone YWCA at 624-3506, 10 to 12 and 2 to 4, Mondays through Fridays.

HRD Aids Minorities

An official of the Reagan Administration disclosed recently that 43 percent of the un employed placed in jobs by the State Department of Human Resorces Development since last August were members of minority races.

Gilbert L. Sheffield, HRD director, said the figure referred "to job placements since August, 1970, when a new automated reporting system was started in the Department to provide hitherto unavailable data on people served and services performed."

The 43 percent, Sheffield said, represented 26,529 persons of minority races who had been placed in jobs since August, out of total placements of 61,883.

"When you compare this 43 percent to the state's 20 percent minority population," added Sheffield, "I believe it indicates clearly the Reagan Administration is providing a favorable placement service to minorities."

Sheffield said that the new automated system of reporting HRD's employment services provided precise details on every applicant, such as age, sex, income, race, education, handicaps and veteran status.

"The record also shows other personal factors of the applicants such as lack of transportation, need for child care service, whether skilled or unskilled, number of weeks unemployed and whether on welfare or not," he added.

"From these new figures we can draw fairly accurate profiles of the type of people we are helping," said Sheffield.

"For example, of the 61,000 placements during this period, about two-thirds were men. About 37,500 were aged between 22 and 44, the balance being about equally divided between younger and older applicants."

Sheffield said that, of the minorities placed in jobs, 13,700 were Spanish-surnamed, 11,000 were Negro and about 600 were American Indians. More than 15,000 of the total placements were veterans, he added.

"The new reporting system clearly shows the special emphasis HRD Department has placed on helping the disadvantaged," said Sheffield. "Nearly half of all those placed were in this class--poor and unemployed, either a minority member or handicapped by age or physical condition, or living in an economically depressed area."

Sheffield said that, during the same period, more than 16,000 persons had been enrolled in some kind of training to develop their employment potential.

"Here, too, we concentrate on meeting the needs of the disadvantaged person, to help them become self-supporting, to get

Garden Column

By Russee Parvin

Spring is color-blue skies, green grassy meadows, yellow and blue wild flowers and rainbow gardens. Spring color can be used best when gardens are planted with design and forethought of bloom and color. Borders of color along a fence, beside a path or accenting a plant can make your garden a springtime of color.

In front of a fence, terrace the plants with small colorful plants to the front, gradually working back to larger plants to cover or accent the fence. A well-designed fence can be an accent to a garden, balancing the bright colors and green foliage of the plants.

A path can be bordered by plants to accent it or luminate it, by the use of white or yellow flowers. Ideal gardens have a few permanent shrubs, trees or sculptures which are accented by the colorful borders. Placed correctly, the many bulbs, flowers, and annuals and preannuals accentuate the accent.

Borders placed correctly will gradually bring your eye from a minor starting point in the garden, to the main accent of tree, sculpture or entrance. And a colorful border will keep you interested and anticipating the end result.

Many plants can be planted now for bright color. They can be bought by seed or in flats already started.

Some of the annuals that do well here in Seaside include Snapdragon, Calendula, Bachelor Button, Larkspur, sweet William, Dianthus, Sweet Pea, Sweet Alyssum, stock, forget-me-not, Nemesia, Shirley poppy and Pansy.

Only one bulb can be planted this time of year for color, that is Anemone.

Much color can be enjoyed from vines such as Bougainvillea and Wisteria and color from perennials and biennials include Columbine, Delphinium, Dianthus, bleeding Heart, foxglove, Helleborus, Coral Bells, Candytuff and Viola. Shrubs can produce a wide variety of color from Azelea, Callistemon, Choisya, Melaleuca, Raphiolepis, Roses. Trees with bright color include Aesculus, Magnolia and plum. These plants can all be planted in Seaside and produce bright and beautiful color in our condition.

RISING

State General Fund cash

State General Fund cash receipts totaled $1,851,678,047 during the first six months of fiscal year 1970-71. This was $83,163,835 ahead of the same period a year ago, but still below expectations. The increase is due mainly to revenues being received earlier this year, rather than growth.

Teachers In Art Workshop

Sixty-five elementary and junior high school teachers of the Monterey Peninsula Unified School District are enrolled in an after-school art workshop late afternoons and evenings April 19, 20 and 21, at the Cabrillo School in Seaside.

This inservice opportunity is provided through the MPUSD office of research and planning headed by Waldo Price, director, who arranged to have Mrs. Alva McGarah, representative of Binney & Smith, Incorporated, makers of Crayola crayons, come to the district without charge.

Teachers will spend 15 hours of their own time to learn about modern creative art education, materials, tools and techniques. These will include use of crayons, water colors, poster paints, finger paints, colored chalks and modeling clay. Teachers will work with paper, paste and other materials to gain three-dimensional effects.

All the experiences can be modified for pupil art instruction, depending on the age, grade and individual ability of students.

Mrs. McGarah has taught extensively and holds a M.A. degree from the Iowa State University.

Teachers will receive one unit of salary credit for participation in the art workshop.
